Letter of Recommendation

Ref No. LOR/501

Date: 20 February, 2021

Dear Kanak Sengar,

It has always been my belief that the true merit of a person's work ethic can be found when they are performing in an unpaid position. Kanak Sengar has proven herself truly devoted to the work of graphics designing rather than the pursuit of titles or salary. During her two months internship, Kanak Sengar proved that she was eager to learn, willing to lead projects and able to create.

This internship started on 12/12/2020 and was supposed to only be 15 hours per week until 12/02/2021. However, she quickly showed great ambition in graphics designing and conducting interviews with the social media team. Therefore, a more accurate account of her time here would be closer to 15 hours per week in order to properly meet the numerous deadlines she set for herself.

She was always on-time, prepared and easy-going. She took care of all the minor details and owned up her work be it graphics designing and content writing. She is also a great team leader as she always helped others in the team with their work.

I am completely confident that Kanak Sengar will succeed in any organisation she chooses to work with, and that she will raise the bar for creative contribution as well.

Sincerely,

Vishnu Datt Pandey
